

National Family Law Arbitration Course

2022 course

Join senior family law lawyers practicing in Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba and Ontario in a course developed by Lorne Wolfson, Lawrence Pinsky and John-Paul Boyd QC to learn the nuts and bolts of arbitrating family law disputes and managing a successful arbitration practice.

pre-course programs

- what Two optional single-day programs for family law lawyers and mental health professionals interested in working as parenting coordinators.
- who Alyson Jones, Dr. Rachel Birnbaum, Dr. Lorri Yassenik, Lorne Wolfson, Lawrence Pinsky and John-Paul Boyd QC.
- when 28 January 2022 The basics of psychology for family law lawyers
29 January 2022 The basics of family law for mental health professionals
- where Online by videoconference. Participants will require a device with an internet connection, webcam and microphone.
- cost $350

the course

- what A 40-hour interactive course providing a comprehensive introduction to the arbitration of family law disputes in Canada approved by the Law Society of British Columbia and the Family Dispute Resolution Institute of Ontario.
- who Tom Dart, Dr. Barbara Fidler, Herschel Fogelman, Aaron Franks, Cheryl Goldhart, Stephen Grant, Arlene Henry QC, Alf Mamo, Danny Melamed, Tracy Morrow, Krysta Ostwald QC, Eugene Raponi QC, Rick Shields, Brahm Siegel, and Bryan Smith, and the faculty of the pre-course programs.
- when 4 February 2022 Introduction to family law arbitration
5 February 2022 Arbitration agreements, negotiating agreements and the role of the court in arbitration processes
18 February 2022 Domestic violence, pre-hearing conferences, interim applications and introduction to the mock arbitration
19 February 2022 Rules of procedure, evidence, hearing the voice of children and the nuts and bolts of running hearings
4 March 2022 Arbitration Act test and mock arbitration exercises
5 March 2022 Drafting awards, issues arising after the award and managing an arbitration practice
- where Online by videoconference. Participants will require a device with an internet connection, webcam and microphone.
- cost $1,800 for members of ADRIC, FMC, FAMILI, MediateBC, FDRIO or OAFM
$1,950 for all others

National Family Law Arbitration Course

www.nflac.ca

Registration fees:

Pre-course programs (check one or none)

- Basics of psychology for family law lawyers: $350
- Basics of family law for mental health professionals: $350

Course (check one)

- Member rate: $1800 (members of ADRIC, FMC, FAMLI, MediateBC, FDRIO or OAFM)
- Non-member rate: $1950

Registration fees include GST.

Participant information:

Name _____

Organization _____

Address _____

Telephone _____

Email _____

Occupation Legal professional: _____

Mental health professional: _____

Other: _____

Membership ADRIC FMC FAMLI MediateBC FDRIO OAFM

May we share your name and contact information with other participants? (check one) Yes No

Payment and other information:

Please mail this form and your cheque, money order or bank draft, made out to “Wise Scheible Barkauskas (NFLAC),” at:

Wise Scheible Barkauskas
750-700 4th Avenue SW
Calgary AB T2P 3J4
Attention: Nona Irvine-Ford

We cannot accept payment by credit card, e-transfer or cash. Contact Nona at nford@divorceinc.com or 403-750-2586 for additional payment information.

Note that a fee of $50 will be charged for cancellations of pre-course program registrations received after 14 January 2022. A fee of $150 will be charged for cancellations of course registrations received after 28 January 2022.

